Socioeconomic Rights in History Leverhulme Network

Health, Well-Being and Subsistence in the History of Socioeconomic Rights, Duties and Obligations

10-11 November 2016

Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin für Sozialforschung (WZB) Berlin Social Science Center 10785 Berlin Reichpietschufer 50

Organised by:

Dieter Gosewinkel, Paul-André Rosental, and Claudia Stein

This two-day workshop will explore the history of the rights to health, well-being and subsistence from the eighteenth century to today from the perspective of governmentality and biopolitics.

Thursday, 10 November

9.15

9.15	Meet at WZB, Reichpietschufer 50, 10785 Berlin, room: A305
9.30	Welcome and Opening Comments
Session 1:	Right to Health, Well-Being and Subsistence from the Legal Perspective
	Chair: Dieter Gosewinkel, WZB
9.45	Eberhard Eichenhofer, Friedrich-Schiller University, Jena Right to Health: Some Observations from the German Perspective
Session 2:	Traditions and Institutions of Health Care, Well-Being and Subsistence
	Chair: Paul-André Rosental, Sciences Po, Paris
10.30	Andrew Mendelsohn, Queen Mary, University of London/Charité Berlin Physicians, the Protectable Worker's Body, the Minable Earth, and the Naturalization of Sustainable Organized Extractive Capitalism
11.15	Coffee Break
11.30	Hilary Marland/Catharine Cox and Margaret Charleroy, University of Warwick/University College Dublin Two research projects related to the Welcome Trust Senior Investigator Award: Prisoners, Medical Care and Entitlement to Health in England and Ireland, 1850-2000

Century: Was There a Prisoners' 'Right to Health'? (Marland/Cox) Understanding Prisoner Rights Through Diet and Health (Charleroy) 12.15 Cornelius Torp, Free University, Berlin Social Justice in Old Age Provision: Germany and the UK since 1945 13.00 Lunch at WZB Session 3: Standards and Norms of Health, Well-Being and Subsistence Chair: Claudia Stein, University of Warwick 14.00 Andrea Rusnock, University of Rode Island To Waste Not: Moral and Political Aspects of 18th-Century Population and Mortality Statistics 14.45 Dana Simmons, University of California, Riverside Anthropometric Measures, Physiological Capital and the Standards of Living Debate 15.30 Coffee Break 15.45 Philip Lepenies, Free University, Berlin Data Before Theory: How Growth and GDP Became Political Instruments and What This Means for Alternatives to GDP 16.30 Marion Hulverscheidt, University of Zurich Economics and Health Care: Intersex Children in Switzerland, 1950-1960 18.00 Evening Keynote Chair: Steven Jensen, Danish Institute for Human Rights, Copenhagen Laura Belmonte, Oklahoma State University U.S. Global Policy on HIV/AIDS: A History 20.00 dinner at Joseph Roth Diele, Potsdamer Str. 75, 10785 Berlin

Criminal-Mindedness, Governmentality and Prisoners' Minds in the Late Nineteenth

Friday, 11 November

9.30 Meet at WZB, Reichpietschufer 50, 10785 Berlin, room: A305

Session 4: Health and Subsistence in Relation to Subjecthood and Citizenship

Chair: Charles Walton, University of Warwick

9.45	Amy Hinterberger, University of Warwick
	Who, and What, Constitutes the Human Subject in a Right to Health and Well-Being?
10.30	Charles-Antoine Wanecq, CHSP-Sciences Po, Paris The Genesis and Development of the Right to Emergency Rescue, France 1920s-1980
11.15	Coffee Break
11.30	Paul-André Rosental, Sciences Po, Paris Eugenics and Public Health: An Utilitarian Connection
12.15	Sybilla Nikolow, Goethe-University, Frankfurt am Main/University of Bielefeld Public Attitudes to Scientific Display of the Body in Health Exhibitions
13.00	Lunch at WZB
Session 5:	Territory and Security and Health and Subsistence
	Chair: Claudia Stein, University of Warwick
14.00	Elena Serrano, Max Planck Institute For the History of Science, Berlin Making Citizens During the Spanish Epidemics of Yellow Fevers: Guyton's Fumigating Machine in Napoleonic Times
14.45	Dora Vargha, University of Exeter Polio Eradication as a Socialist Concept: The Cold War Roots of a Global Health Program
15.30	Johanna Folland, University of Michigan Revolution vs. "Risk": Africa, the AIDS Crisis, and the Fate of East German Internationalism in the 1980s
16.15	Final Comments

Berlin Social Science Center