

Second Symposium on Social Learning
Space: Redesigning Universities

Programme

Tuesday 20 March 2007

- 9:30 Registration
- 10:00 Welcome and introduction to the Reinvention Centre at Westwood, a social teaching space – Mike Neary, Director, Reinvention Centre CETL
- 10:15 Keynote – Colin Gilmore-Merchant, SMC Alsop Architects
- 11:15 Coffee
- 11:35-12:20 Parallel session 1:

Jan Howden, Glasgow Caledonian University: Saltire Centre concepts and the first year	Berry O'Donovan & Martyn Greenwood, ASKe CETL, Oxford Brookes University: A small-scale experiment in the development of social-learning space	Martin Jenkins & Carolyn Roberts, Centre for Active Learning, University of Gloucestershire: Learning spaces for active learning: design and evaluation	Maja Jankowska, Bridges CETL, University of Bedfordshire: Use of creative space in enhancing students' engagement	Jill Armstrong, Carol Elston, Bob Glass, Vikki Illingworth, Christine Keenan, Sandra Sinfield & Kate Smith, LearnHigher CETL: Innovative learning spaces for 'learning development'	Tom Hamilton, InQbate CETL, University of Sussex: More than simply social: designing technology and spaces to support constructivist learning
--	---	--	--	--	--

12:20 Lunch

13:05-13:50 Parallel session 2:

Tarsem Singh Cooner & Ann Davis, CEIMH, University of Birmingham: Technology in social spaces: early reflections on promoting interdisciplinary education	Amanda J. Lewis, C-Scaipe CETL, Kingston University: Internet café with or without the coffee?	Ivan Moore & Sarah Bamforth, engCETL, Loughborough University: Learning spaces evaluation workshop	Alison Price, Institute for Enterprise, Leeds Metropolitan University: Design for learning modes	John Davey & Helen Jamieson, SOLSTICE CETL, Edge Hill University: Collections, collaboration and cappuccino: enhancing learning in a library setting	Stig A. Walsh, Foundation Direct CETL, University of Portsmouth: Making the most of your orange segment—a social learning space packed with vitamin C
--	---	---	---	---	--

- 14:00 Panel session
- 15:00 Tea
- 15:15 Oxford Brookes Campus Redevelopment Plan – RMJM Architects
- 16:00 Summary Overview – Georgia Butina Watson, Head of Department of Planning,
Oxford Brookes University
- 16:30-16:45 Closing remarks and thanks – Margaret Price, Director, ASKe CETL