

RCGP Symposium Programme 18th May 2017 - Morning Sessions

9.00 —9.30am REGISTRATION AND COFFEE
9.30—9.45am WLT	WELCOME Prof Paramjit Gill (Warwick Primary Care), Prof Jeremy Dale (Warwick Primary Care) and Dr Stephen Kelly (Royal College of General Practitioners)
9.45—10.30am	KEYNOTE Dr Julian Treadwell (Vice Chair of the RCGP Standing Group on Overdiagnosis) “Why GPs care about the problem of Too Much Medicine”	Chair: Prof Paramjit Gill
10.30—10.50am COFFEE
10.55—11.55am RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS
Room 0.04	A. Quality	Chair: Dr Emma Scott
10.55—11.10am	How many tonsillectomies are necessary? An eleven year retrospective cohort study of indications and eligibility for childhood tonsillectomy in UK primary care	Dr Dana Sumilo
11.10—11.25am	An audit and questionnaire exploring the impact of the NICE 2006 Guidelines for maternal postnatal consultations in primary care	Daniella Brown
11.25—11.40am	A Clinical Audit addressing the requirement of a holiday period for patients on Bisphosphonates for more than five years	Hannah Connolly Gregory Bacon
11.40—11.55am	Audit on assessment and management of patients with fragility fracture in General Practice setting	Dr Harsha Gunasekara
Room 0.05	B. Workforce	Chair: Prof Jeremy Dale
10.55—11.10am	GP STARS: Factors determining the career plans of GP trainees	Dr Kate Owen
11.10—11.25am	Work experience in General Practice and Widening Access to Medicine	Dr Paul Garrud
11.25—11.40am	General Practitioner Lead Commissioning: What are the enablers and barriers to engagement?	Shahavez Kiani
11.40—11.55am	Bridging the gap between primary and secondary care: lessons from a post CCT fellowship in urgent and acute care	Dr Carol Bryce
Room 1.04	C. Quality	Chair: Dr Sarah Mitchell
10.55— 11.10am	An Audit of 2-Week-Wait Referrals in Paediatric Oncology at Royal Stoke University Hospital	Dr Joshua Leech
11.10—11.25am	Clinical Prescribing of Cephalosporins and Quinolones at a General Practice Centre in July 2016	Dr Pradeep Gunawardhana
11.25—11.40am	A THIN database investigation into cardiovascular risk scoring and the prescribing of statins in UK General Practice	Dr Samuel Finnikin
11.40—11.55am	Attitudes and behaviours towards tobacco cessation among general practice doctors: a cross-sectional study	Dr Faraz Mughal
12—12.45pm WLT	HELEN LESTER MEMORIAL LECTURE Professor Robert McKinley (Professor of Education in General Practice, Keele University) ‘So how do I ...?’ and other questions	Chair: Dr Helen Atherton

RCGP Symposium Programme 18th May 2017 - Afternoon Sessions

12.45—1.15pm LUNCH
1.15—1.50pm WLT	Top Five Poster Presentations— see page 6 for titles and authors of all posters presented and displayed today. Please also make time to view the posters in Room 0.02	Chair: Prof Jeremy Dale
2.00-3.00pm	RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS
Room 0.04	D. Chronic Disease and End of Life Care	Chair: Prof Paramjit Gill
2.00—2.15pm	The natural history of flare-ups in knee osteoarthritis: descriptive findings from a prospective daily diary study	Dr Emma Parry
2.15—2.30pm	The effect of a very low calorie diet on glycaemic control in people with type 2 diabetes mellitus – a systematic review	Dr Emma Scott
2.30—2.45pm	Improving End of Life Care for People with Long Term Mental Ill Health and Terminal Illness: An Exploratory Study of the Views and Experiences of End of Life and Mental Health Care Clinicians	Jed Jerwood
2.45—3.00pm	“Transition of care” for frail older adults – Bridging the gap	Dr Cat Roberts
Room 0.05	E. Service Innovation	Chair: Abi Eccles
2.00—2.15pm	Partnership in prostate cancer (ICARE-P): using digital technology to enable primary and specialist care integration	Rebecca Appleton
2.15—2.30pm	Quantitative analysis of online patient feedback left on NHS Choices about practices in the Coventry and Warwickshire area	Jaskiran Gill
2.30—2.45pm	Compassion in healthcare: A circular phenomenon and a shared responsibility, but where does medical education fit in?	Dr Stephanie Tierney Sophie Perry Cameron-Tosh Ozer
2.45—3.00pm	Nursing home admissions – can we do better?	Dr Elizabeth Moss Dr Simon Beatty
Room 1.04	F. Shining a Spotlight Patient and Public Involvement	Chair: Dr Faraz Mughal
2.00—2.20pm	The experience of young people in patient and public involvement for palliative care research	Dr Sarah Mitchell
2.20—2.40pm	The Care Companion Project: Putting co-production into practice working with carers, NHS, local authority and third sector stakeholders to develop a digital resource to support informal carers	Joelle Loew
2.40—3.00pm	Empowering men with prostate cancer through online holistic needs assessment and care planning (CHAT P)	Dr Veronica Nanton
3.00—3.20pm COFFEE
3.20—4.00pm WLT	THE ROBIN PINSENT LECTURE Prof Paul Wallace (National Primary Care Director for the NIHR Clinical Research Networks) “Every practice a research practice - what's on offer from the NIHR?”	Chair: Prof Jeremy Dale
4.00—4.30pm	LOOKING TO THE FUTURE, PRIZES AND FAREWELLS	Prof Paramjit Gill Dr Stephen Kelly