

Men, Infertility and Infertility Treatment

Friday 29 November 2013

Scarman Training & Conference Centre
University of Warwick

This seminar presents the findings of an ESRC funded research project studying men's experiences of infertility and infertility treatment. The presentations highlight important themes from interviews with men undergoing infertility treatment and with health professionals working in the field of Assisted Conception
9.30 – 10.00	Registration and Coffee
10.00 – 10.05	Welcome	Dr Alan Dolan University of Warwick
10.05 – 10.20	Why is research on men's experiences of infertility and infertility treatment important to us?	Professor Geraldine Hartshorne Scientific Director, Centre for Reproductive Medicine, University Hospitals Coventry and Warwickshire NHS Trust
10.20 – 11.20	'I never expected it to be me': men's experiences of infertility	Dr Alan Dolan University of Warwick
11.20 – 11.45	Break with coffee
11.45 – 1.00	'I've got one job to do': men's experiences of infertility treatment	Dr Alan Dolan University of Warwick
1.00 – 2.00	Lunch and Close of Programme
This seminar will be of interest to service users, academics, researchers, clinicians, nurses, counsellors, health service managers, and others encountering men and couples with fertility problems. Additionally, it will also be of interest to support groups and members of the public. Attendees will have an opportunity to ask questions following the presentations. The seminar is free of charge to attend, but places are limited and must be booked in advance. Please contact Claire New C.E.New@warwick.ac.uk to register for a place.		