

Masters in Medical Education (MMedEd)
Course structure

PG Certificate stage – 3 core modules*, ****

MD962: Essentials of Clinical Education
MD907: Becoming an Effective Teacher
MD900: Assessment in Clinical Education

*MD962: Essentials of Clinical Education must be completed first
**Other modules can be taken in any order

PG Diploma stage – 2 core modules plus 1 optional module*, **, *****

MD967: Evidence and Values in Clinical Education
MD970: Research Methods in Clinical Education

MH928: Introduction to Management in Health Service Organisations (optional)
MD969: Learning Technologies in Healthcare Education (optional)

*All PG Certificate modules must be completed prior to starting the PG Diploma stage
**MD967: Evidence and Values must be taken before MD970: Research Methods but optional modules can be taken at any time
***Other modules are available subject to Course Director approval

MMedEd (Masters) stage***

PC950: Professional Project**
Or
ME914: Dissertation***

*All PG Diploma modules must be completed prior to starting the Masters stage
**If Professional Project is chosen, a second optional module from the PG Diploma stage must be taken
***Please see the Postgraduate Handbook for the criteria for eligibility to undertake the dissertation

1-3 years

2-4 years

3-5 years

Disclaimer: Please see the Medical Education webpage for currently approved modules and dates: <https://warwick.ac.uk/fac/sci/med/study/cpd/meded/b9xd/>