Reflective Practice in English Language Teaching

Research-Based Principles and Practices

Steve Mann, University of Warwick, UK and Steve Walsh, Newcastle University, UK

Series: ESL & Applied Linguistics Professional Series

Offering a unique, data-led, evidence-based approach to reflective practice in English language teaching, this book brings together theory, research, and practice in an accessible way to demonstrate what reflective practice looks like and how it is undertaken in a range of contexts. Readers learn how to do and to research reflective practice in their own settings. Through the use of data, dialogue, and appropriate tools, the authors show how reflective practice can be used as an on-going teaching tool that supports professional self-development.
