thelibrary

Welcome to the Library!

connecting you with information,
support and your community

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WARWICK

What this induction will cover

- Library facilities and services
- Facilities for research students
- How to find books and journals - Encore
- Your Library account
- Accessing databases

But firstly...

Where can you find help?

- Library website
- Library Help Desk on Floor 1
- IT Services help desk on Floor 1, for help with printing or PC problems
- Your Academic Support Librarian – guidance with subject-specific enquiries

Get Started

Take a tour

During the first two weeks of term you can sign up for a tour of the Library. Get Started tours give you the opportunity to familiarise yourself with Library facilities, meet staff and find out more about your course resources.

Tours last for 20 minutes and will run at regular intervals. Tours start on floor 1 of the Library.

Bookings will be available shortly.

Get Started checklist

Get started on making the most of your Library. Use our weekly checklist to guide you.

Week one

1. Visit the Library's study spaces

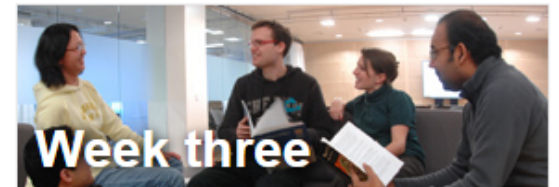

The Library is more than just a single location, so take the time to investigate the different study spaces to find the place that suits you (comparison chart).

Week two

5. Find your reading in the Library

Get to grips with the different ways to use the Library's search engine, Encore, to find your text in the 1.2 million printed volumes available and learn about the different types of loans.

Week three

8. Get to know the library staff

Find out more on how the Library can help you with your studies and who is available to help.

Traditional library areas for quiet study

Social areas for group study

Wolfson Research Exchange

The Wolfson Research Exchange is a community space that offers peer support and a forum for interdisciplinary collaboration to all Warwick researchers. Last year the space held over 700 research led events, more than any other space at Warwick.

Location:

Library Road

Floor 3 of the Library extension

Who is it for:

All researchers at Warwick.

What can I do here:

- Find other researchers
- Get involved with the research community
- Discuss research-related topics
- Attend events for researchers
- Plan your own research event

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WARWICK

Where are the books???

- Floor 2 extension – Maths, Science and Medicine
- Floor 3 – Arts and Humanities
- Floor 4 – Law and Education, plus UK Government publications, the European Documentation Centre and printed statistics
- Floor 5 – Social Sciences, including Economics, Business and more!

Yet more in print – for reference

thelibrary

- Economics dictionaries and encyclopedias are near the lift lobby on Floor 5
- Economics journals are on Floor 5, with other Social Science titles, arranged by title, A-Z
- Journals published before 2000 may be fetched from the Library store

Other book locations? Don't forget...

- Pamphlets – small books kept in boxes, on the same floor, in a separate section
- Oversize - tall books shelved separately, on the same floor
- Reference - dictionaries, encyclopedias and other books not for loan, shelved separately on the same floor
- Short Loan – Floor 1
- Learning Grid – reference copies of textbooks, in University House

Borrowing books - key facts...

- You may borrow up to 30 books at one time
- Plus 2 from the Short Loan collection (overnight or for a weekend)
- Standard loan = 16 weeks; plus copies for 3-day loan
- Watch out for finer – it pays to bring books back on time
- Short Loan fines are the highest - £1 per hour or part of hour
- Please bring the books back on time to avoid fines!

More tips on borrowing books

- Reminders - we will send a message to your Warwick e-mail one day before your book is due back
- Recalls – we also e-mail you if another student has placed a hold on a book which you have borrowed – you will have one week to return it, if it is a standard loan copy
- You can extend a loan by renewing your book online, as long as no other student has placed a hold on it

What if someone else has the book you need?

- You can place a hold on the book, online
- We ask the other reader to return it within one week
- Check your University e-mails to see when the book is available to pick up
- It will be shelved in the Short Loan area for you to collect

Check your University e-mails and your Library account frequently!

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WARWICK

Your Library Account

- Shows which books you have borrowed and when they are due back
- Allows you to renew your loans
- Tells you which books you have on hold – reservations
- Gives details of any fines owing
- Check it regularly and you need never incur a fine at all!

Top tip - never pay to download an article from an internet site – it can cost £30 or more!

- Check Encore to see if we take the journal in which the article appears
- Try Article Reach to obtain it free from another Library
- Or contact me to help you find alternative good articles, also completely free

You can always contact your librarian through the Library website 😊
