

Department of Economics, University of Warwick

Economic Theory Workshop, May 26-27.

Programme

(All talks will be held in Room S2.79, Social Science Building)

MAY 26

9.10 Welcome

9.15 -10.15: Peyton Young (University of Oxford): "The Dynamics of Social Innovation"

10.15-11.15 : Ennio Stacchetti (New York University) :
"One-sided Uncertainty and Delay in Reputational Bargaining"

11.15-11.45: Coffee/Tea Break

11.45-12.45: Christophe Chamley (Boston University): "Demands Creates its own Supply"

12.45-2.00 : Lunch

2.00-3.00: Sanjeev Goyal (University of Cambridge): "Competitive Contagion in Networks"

3.00-4.00: Debraj Ray (New York University): "Poverty and Self-Control"

4.00-.4.30: Coffee/Tea Break

4.30-5.30 : Asher Wolinsky (Northwestern University): "Search With Asymmetric Information"

5.30-6.30 : Philip Reny (University of Chicago)
"Sequential Equilibria of Games with Infinite Sets of Types and Actions"

7.00: Drinks and Dinner in Scarman House

MAY 27

9.30-10.30: Elchanan Ben-Porat (Hebrew University):
"Optimal Allocations with Costly State Verification"

10.30-11.30: Philippe Jehiel (Paris School of Economics): "Reputation with Analogical Reasoning"

11.30-12.00: Coffee Break

12.00-1.00: Muhamet Yildiz (Massachusetts Institute of Technology):
"A Structure Theorem for Rationalizability in Infinite-Horizon Games".

1.00-2.30 : Lunch

2.30-3.30: Benny Moldovanu (University of Bonn):
"Bayesian and Dominant Strategy Implementation Revisited"

3.30-4.30: Hamid Sabourian (University of Cambridge): "Repeated Implementation"