

Socrates Club Symposium Feminist Philosophies

Wednesday 20 March 2024
online via Microsoft Teams

Time	Event
10:00 – 10.05	Welcome by Professor Marianna Fotaki, Socrates Club Symposium chair.
10:05 – 10.35	Professor Alison Pullen, Care Community and Activism. Professor of Management and Organisation Studies, Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia https://researchers.mq.edu.au/en/persons/alison-pullen
10.35-10.55	Elzbieta Korolczuk, Right-wing critiques of globalization: the anti-colonial frame in the anti-gender movement. Elżbieta Bekiesza-Korolczuk American Studies Center, University of Warsaw (uw.edu.pl)
10.55 – 11.15	Professor Devi Vijay, A Feminist Heart: Foraging for Alternatives Amidst Capitalist Ruins. https://www.iimcal.ac.in/users/devi
11.15 – 11.30	Short Break
11.30 – 11.50	Professor Melissa Tyler, Organising vulnerability: breathing, grieving and staring sites for feminist ethics and action. Professor of Organisation Studies and Human Resource Management, Essex Business School, University of Essex, UK https://www.essex.ac.uk/people/HANCO60106/Melissa-Tyler
11.50 – 12.10	Silvia Gherardi, Feminism under erasure in new feminist materialism as a case of symbolic manspreading https://www.unitn.it/rucola/120/silvia-gherardi
12.10 – 12.55	Discussion
12.55 – 13.00	Closing Marianna Fotaki

If you would like to join us at the Socrates Club symposium on Wednesday 20 March at Warwick Business School, please book your place via owoffice@wbs.ac.uk and specify your online attendance.