As part of London Open Weekend 2012 and to celebrate Coventry's recent announcement of becoming a host Olympic City, you are invited to the Community Information Fair being held at The Ricoh Arena Community Space on Saturday 24th July.

David Moorcroft, Olympian and 2012 Ambassador, will open the event which will provide the perfect opportunity to:

- Get information about London 2012 projects and events happening locally in Coventry, regionally and nationally;
- Find out how individuals and community organisations can get involved;
- Obtain details of funding that might be available to support any projects/activities you may want to organise or be considering.

Presentations, performances and demonstrations will provide information about and showcase local, regional and national 2012 projects. Key areas will include Coventry as an Olympic Host City, London 2012 Inspire Programme, 2012 Volunteering, Olympic Park Tours, Community Games, People Dancing, Get Set Education Programme, and the Cultural Olympiad. Free time to browse the information stands, get more details on particular areas of interest, and to ask questions directly will also be available.

This FREE event has been organised in association with a number of partners, including Coventry CEN, Coventry and Warwickshire 2012 Partnership (CW2012), Coventry City Council, the Coventry Partnership, Heart of England Community Foundation, Ricoh Arena, The Ricoh Arena Community Space and West Midlands for 2012 (WM2012).

To attend just complete and return the attached registration form, telephone 07766 142238 or email info@covcen.org.uk to reserve your place. Refreshments and lunch are included. Free parking will also be available.
