Gender and Media Workshop
Tuesday 5th September 2006
University of Warwick

We are delighted to invite you to attend the 'Gender and Media' Workshop, a BSA Sociology of Media Study Group and Centre for the Study of Women and Gender joint event.

Contributors include Rosalind Gill (Gender Institute, LSE), Anne-Marie Kramer (Sociology, Warwick), Stuart Price (School of Media and Cultural Production, DMU) and Karen Ross (Centre for Media, Arts and Performance, Coventry School of Art and Design, Coventry University).

Covering a range of topics, from women politicians and the news, to the politics of pre-natal testing, through chick lit to gender in film and TV, the day will also offer opportunities for networking.

Cost: £10 or £5 for students. Tea and coffee will be provided. Lunch can be obtained from the range of outlets available on campus.

See: http://www2.warwick.ac.uk/about/visiting/ for how to get to Warwick.

To register for the event please email Amy.Evans@warwick.ac.uk before 29th August.

BSA Sociology of Media Study Group
- & -
Centre for the Study of Women and Gender,
niversity of Warwick

Gender and Media Workshop

Tuesday 5th September 2006
University of Warwick
MS0.4, Maths Building

11am   Registration and coffee, Maths building foyer

11.25   Welcome

11.30   'Framed: women, politics and the news agenda'
            Karen Ross, Coventry

12 pm   'Women's rights, medical responsibility and the assessment of risk:
            Pre-natal testing in the Polish press'
            Anne-Marie Kramer, Warwick

12 – 2   Lunch

2 pm   'Rewriting the Romance? Chick lit and postfeminism'
            Ros Gill, LSE

2.30 pm   'Action, Utterance & Agency: Representations of Gendered Behaviour in Contemporary Film and Television'
            Stuart Price, DMU

3pm   Close of session

3.10   Networking & coffee

4pm   Suggested finish