AGENDA

#1. Terms of Reference, Constitution and Membership

TO CONSIDER:

Terms of Reference, Constitution and Membership of the Committee for 2008-09, paper AQSC 1/08-09 (copy attached).

#2. Minutes of the previous meeting

TO CONSIDER:

The minutes of the meeting held on Thursday 12 June 2008 (copy attached) (also available online at http://www2.warwick.ac.uk/services/gov/atoz/aqsc/minutes/aqsc_mins_12_june_08.pdf)

3. Freedom of Information: Publication Scheme (Senate minute 148/03-04 and Steering Committee minute 89/07-08 refer)

TO REPORT:

That the Steering Committee at its meeting on 29 October 2007 considered a paper outlining how the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies to the publication of minutes of University bodies together with the University Publication Scheme adopted by the Steering Committee in December 2003, paper SC 60/07-08, and resolved that a standard item be included on the agenda of the first meeting of each University Committee at the start of each academic year to inform new members and to remind continuing members of the University policy on the publication of minutes.

TO RECEIVE:

Paper SC 60/07-08 (copy attached), noting that all non-reserved minutes and agenda of the Committee are published on the University's Governance website at <http://www2.warwick.ac.uk/services/gov/atoz/aqsc/minutes/>

#4. Matters arising

- (a) QAA Institutional Audit (minute 119(d)/07-08 and SC minute 692/07-08 refer)

TO REPORT:

- (i) That the Steering Committee at its meeting on 26 August 2008 resolved to approve the final version of the University's Institutional Briefing Paper, to be sent to QAA by the deadline of 1 September 2008, paper SC.526/07-08 (copy attached).
- (ii) That the Institutional Briefing Paper along with the Student Written Submission and other information is available on the Teaching Quality website:
<http://www2.warwick.ac.uk/services/quality/categories/institutionalaudit/>

TO RECEIVE:

Oral reports from the Chair and the Senior Academic Coordinator for Audit and Enhancement on the Briefing Visit by the QAA audit team as part of the University's Institutional Audit, which took place on 7-9 October 2008, and preparations for the Audit visit, which is due to take place on 10-14 November 2008.

- (b) Undergraduate mark scale and Honours degree classification conventions (minute 119(a)/07-08 refers)

TO REPORT:

That at its meeting on 2 July 2008 the Senate considered:

- (i) The recommendation from the Academic Quality and Standards Committee to introduce a new marking scale, based on 17 grade points, set out in Annex A of paper AQSC 60/07-08 (revised 2) within paper S.51/07-08, on undergraduate modules from Autumn 2008 (on first-year modules from 2008-09 onwards, on second year modules from 2009-10 onwards, and so on), except on numeric-based assessments where the full range of percentage marks from 0 to 100 is used, e.g. many assessments in the Faculty of Science; some language assessments.
- (ii) The recommendation that the University introduce a unified convention for the classification of all Honours degrees, set out in Annex B of paper AQSC 60/07-08 (revised 2), with effect for students first registering in Autumn 2008.

It was reported (by the Pro-Vice-Chancellor {Teaching and Learning}):

- (iii) That the proposed new conventions would offer greater fairness to students and potential for greater flexibility of curricula in the future.
- (iv) That the mapping exercise conducted by four departments had not shown the new conventions to impact negatively on standards or cause grade inflation.
- (v) That the new mark scale would stretch out point averages at the top and bottom of the scale.
- (vi) That departments who are currently marking on a scale of 0 to 100 can, within the newly proposed conventions, continue to do so.

and resolved:

- (vii) That the points of benefit and concern raised by members of the Senate at the meeting regarding the implementation be noted and that, where possible, they be taken into account when introducing the new conventions.
- (viii) That the University adopt a unified convention for the classification of all Honours degrees with the introduction of a new marking scale based on 17 points for any assessments which are not marked on the full range of percentage points for all undergraduate modules taken by students first registering in October 2008.

Following a vote: 29 in favour and 6 against (Senate minute 93/07-08 refers)

TO RECEIVE:

- (ix) Memo from the Chair to Heads of Department dated 23 July 2008 concerning the implementation of the new Honours degree classification convention and marking scale for undergraduate modules, paper AQSC 3/08-09 (copy attached), noting that:
 - (A) Proposals for special degree classification conventions and/or the use of vivas will be considered at a future meeting of the Committee, following consideration by the relevant Faculty Board(s);
 - (B) Information for students and staff on the new Honours degree classification convention and marking scale for undergraduate modules is available on the Teaching Quality website, together with sample texts for student handbooks (www2.warwick.ac.uk/go/quality/categories/examinations/);

- (C) A Window on Warwick session hosted by the Learning and Development Centre and led by the Teaching Quality unit is to take place on Monday 3 November.
- (x) A further memo from the Chair to Heads of Department dated 6 October 2008 concerning implementation, paper AQSC 4/08-09 (copy attached).
- (c) Learning, Teaching and Assessment Enhancement Strategy (minute 119(b)/07-08 and Senate 93/07-08 minute refer)
 - (i) That at its meeting on 2 July 2008 the Senate resolved that the Learning and Teaching Strategy as set out in S.51/07-08 {Part 1} be approved.
 - (ii) That the new Learning and Teaching Strategy along with a draft implementation plan will be considered at a future meeting of the Committee.
- (d) SSLCs on collaborative and distance learning courses (minute 126(b)/07-08 refers)

TO REPORT:

- (i) That the Committee at its meeting on 12 June 2008 resolved that the proposal from the SSLC Coordinators to develop paper CFDLSC 45/07-08 (revised) into summary guidance to be incorporated in the SSLC Handbook for 2008-09, with additional material to be made available on the SSLC web portal as appropriate, be approved.
- (ii) That the Assistant Registrar (Teaching Quality), in consultation with the SSLC Coordinators, the Chair and the Chair of the Collaborative, Flexible and Distance Learning Sub-Committee drafted a summary of key principles of the SSLC system, together with summary guidance for SSLCs covering students based off campus, which was included in the SSLC Handbook for 2008-09, published in the summer and available online at <http://www2.warwick.ac.uk/go/sslc/handbook/>
- (e) Teaching Staff (minute 75(f)/07-08 refers)

TO CONSIDER:

An oral report from Ms S Bennett, Director of the Learning and Development Centre, concerning ongoing work in respect of the proposals for the induction, ongoing development and monitoring of Teaching Fellows, Part-time Teachers and 'Teaching Elements' set out in paper AQSC 52/07-08.

- (f) Reading list project (minute 78/07-08 refers)

TO REPORT:

- (i) That the Committee at its meeting on 27 February 2008 considered the recommendation of the Quality Enhancement Working Group that the practice within some departments of nominating a member of academic staff to coordinate the submission of reading lists to the Library be adopted by all departments and resolved:
- (A) That the Library invite departments to nominate one or more members of academic staff to coordinate the submission of reading lists to the Library;
- (B) That the Library develop the mechanism for actioning reading lists to incorporate feedback to academic staff on the lists they have submitted.
- (ii) That at its meeting on 15 October 2008 the Quality Enhancement Working Group considered a report from Mr Antony Brewerton, Head of Academic Support, Library, on progress on the reading list project, paper QEWG 14/08-09, and resolved that Mr Brewerton bring a further update on progress to the Group following the LibQUAL+ survey, due to take place in November 2008.
(unconfirmed QEWG minute 4(a)/08-09)

TO RECEIVE:

A report from Mr Antony Brewerton, Head of Academic Support, Library, on progress on the reading list project, paper QEWG 14/08-09 (copy attached).

- (g) Guidelines for joint and multi-disciplinary degrees (minute 132/07-08 and QEWG minute 4(d)/07-08 refer)

TO REPORT:

That at its meeting on 15 October 2008 the Quality Enhancement Working Group considered an oral report from the Chair on ongoing work to examine management arrangements on undergraduate courses delivered by more than one department, noting that a Working Group set up under the aegis of the Board of Undergraduate Studies and the Academic Quality and Standards Committee was due to meet on 17 October 2008, and recommended (to the BUGS/AQSC Working Group on Joint and Multi-disciplinary degrees):

- (i) That the term “cross-departmental degrees” be considered as a description of the courses concerned;
- (ii) That the Working Group consider what implications their recommendations may hold for other sources of guidance and advice, including Student-Staff Liaison Committee guidance, Personal Tutor guidance;

- (iii) That the Working Group consider whether further work would be necessary on cross-departmental taught postgraduate courses.

TO CONSIDER:

A report from the BUGS/AQSC Working Group on Joint and Multi-disciplinary degrees, paper AQSC 9/08-09 (to follow).

- (h) Guidelines for the consideration of special case evidence by Boards of Examiners (minute 122(d)/07-08 refers)

TO REPORT:

That at the meeting of the Committee held on 12 June 2008:

- (i) It was reported that the Board of Undergraduate Studies at its meeting on 4 June 2008 considered a composite report of the responses from departments and faculties to the draft Guidelines for Consideration of Examination Candidates Notifying Mitigating Circumstances, paper BUGS 14/07-08, and recommended to the [Academic Quality and Standards] Committee that the revised Guidelines for Consideration of Examination Candidates Notifying Mitigating Circumstances be approved.

(BUGS minute 28/07-08)

- (ii) It was reported that the Board of Graduate Studies at its meeting on 5 June 2008 considered a memo dated 6 May 2008 from the Chair of the Board of Undergraduate Studies inviting Departmental Examination Secretaries to comment on draft Guidelines for Consideration of Examination Candidates Notifying Mitigating Circumstances, paper BGS 67/07-08, together with Faculty and Departmental Responses to the draft Guidelines, paper BUGS 14/07-08, and resolved:

- (A) That the draft Guidelines for Consideration of Examination Candidates Notifying Mitigating Circumstances be not approved for postgraduate taught students but that the Board reconsider the Guidelines at its next meeting.

- (B) That it be noted that concern was expressed that mitigating circumstances should be disclosed to, or further discussed at, a meeting of the full Board of Examiners, as this might deter students from bringing forward their full mitigating circumstances in certain cases.

(BGS minute 103/07-08)

- (iii) The [Academic Quality and Standards] Committee considered the Proposed Guidelines for Consideration of Examination Candidates Notifying Mitigating Circumstances, paper AQSC 87/07-08, together with the resolutions of the Board of Undergraduate Studies and the Board of Graduate Studies, and resolved that the proposed Guidelines be further considered in the Autumn Term 2008 following reconsideration by the Board of Graduate Studies.

TO CONSIDER:

Proposed 'Guidelines for Consideration by Undergraduate Boards of Examiners of Examination Candidates Notifying Mitigating Circumstances', paper AQSC 87/07-08 (copy attached), together with an oral report from the Chair of the Board of Undergraduate Studies.
